

25-08-2011 - Ambassador of Turkey visits Grontmij Headquarters

On 18 August last the Ambassador of Turkey in the Netherlands, Mr U. Dogan, together with the Honorary Consul General Mr J. Peters, visited the international head office of Grontmij in De Bilt (The Netherlands).

They were welcomed by Gert Dral, Group Director Planning & Design, and Kerem Sadiklar, CEO of Grontmij Turkey. During the meeting Gert highlighted themes such as Grontmij's business, the scope of our services, our sustainability and HR policy, including activities with regard to professional education. Kerem presented Grontmij's activities in Turkey.

The meeting can be characterised as informal and very open. Last but not least, also the potential involvement of Grontmij with the upcoming celebration of 400 years of diplomatic relations between Turkey and The Netherlands (2012) was discussed.

For more information, please contact Gert Dral or Kerem Sadiklar.

From left to right: Mr J. Peters (Honorary Consul General), Mr G. Dral (Group Director Grontmij Planning & Design), Mr U. Dogan (Ambassador) and Mr K. Sadiklar (CEO of Grontmij Turkey).